THEME: "It is Time to Prioritize Mental Health in the Workplace"

INTRODUCTION

World Mental Health Day was first observed in 1992 at the initiative of the world federation for mental health (WFMH), a global mental health organization. Since then, it has gained momentum and is now recognised by the World Health Organization (WHO) as an important day to promote mental health awareness worldwide.

World mental health day 2024 is an opportunity for people and communities to unite behind the theme "It is Time to Prioritize Mental Health in the Workplace" focuses on the urgent need for organizations to recognize and address mental health as a critical component of employee well-being and productivity. prioritizing mental health supports employees managing stress, anxiety, and burnout, leading to healthier more engaged workforces.

Mental health is a basic human right for all the people. Everyone whoever and wherever they are, has a right to the highest attainable standard of mental health. This includes the right to be protected from mental health risk, the right to available, accessible, acceptable and good quality care, and the right to liability, independence and inclusion in the community.

Good mental health is vital to our overall health and well-being. Yet one in eight people globally are living with mental conditions, which can impact their physical health, their well-being, how they connect with others, and their livelihoods. Mental health conditions are also affecting an increasing number of adolescents and young people.

World mental health Day plays a crucial role in reducing the stigma associated with mental health issues. It encourages open conversations and empowers individuals to seek help without fear of judgement.

It serves as a platform to educate people about various mental health conditions, their symptoms. And the importance of seeking early intervention and treatment. The day prompt governments and organizations to recognize the significance of mental health and allocate resources toward mental health programs and services.

Annual Freshers and Farewell Celebration

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

On March 1st, 2025, the Student Nurses' Association (SNA) organized a heart-warming and unforgettable Freshers and Farewell event, bringing together M.Sc., B.Sc., and GNM Nursing students. This highly anticipated occasion served a dual purpose—welcoming the freshers to their new academic journey while bidding a heartfelt farewell to the graduating batch. The event was structured into two segments: a formal morning ceremony and an exciting DJ evening, making it a day filled with joy, emotions, and celebration.

The morning session (9:00 AM - 1:00 PM) began with the Freshers' ceremony, where senior students extended a warm welcome through engaging games, activities, and dance performances, fostering an energetic and friendly atmosphere. Simultaneously, the Farewell ceremony honoured the outgoing students, recognizing their achievements and contributions to the nursing community. One of the highlights of the morning was the announcement of the Ms. and Mr. Freshers contest winners from different nursing programs. The winners were acknowledged with attractive prizes and applause, marking their official welcome into the nursing fraternity. The formal session concluded with a delicious lunch (1:00 PM - 2:00 PM), providing an opportunity for students and faculty to relax and connect over a variety of delightful dishes.

The afternoon segment featured the much-awaited DJ Eve, where students danced and celebrated, creating memories to cherish for a lifetime. The lively beats and enthusiastic participation made it a perfect way to conclude the event. Before the event wrapped up, Ms. Kinjal, and Final year M.Sc. Nursing student, delivered a heartfelt speech, expressing gratitude to the faculty, senior students, and the organizing committee for their efforts in making the event a grand success.

ACTIVITY REPORT

Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, celebrated Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2024 with a series of engaging and awareness-driven activities aimed at promoting a safe and inclusive campus environment. The week began on 12th August with a poster competition based on the theme "#YaRIYouthAgainst Anti-Ragging." Students from 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing, 2nd Year B. Sc Nursing, and 2nd & 3rd Year GNM actively participated, showcasing their creativity and commitment to the cause. The 3rd Year GNM students emerged as winners, securing the first prize for their impactful poster designs.

On 14th August, the college organized a slogan/logo competition, again involving students from the same academic years. The 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing students won the first prize for their compelling slogans that highlighted the importance of standing against ragging. On the same day, a flash mob was conducted by the 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing students within the college campus. This dynamic performance served as a powerful medium to raise awareness among the college community, including non-teaching staff such as security guards, peons, maids, and administrative personnel. They were educated about the seriousness of ragging and encouraged to report any incidents to the college's Anti-Ragging Committee.

The week concluded on 18th August with an essay writing competition, where students expressed their thoughts and understanding of anti-ragging measures through well-articulated essays. The Anti-Ragging Week successfully fostered a culture of vigilance, empathy, and responsibility among students and staff, reinforcing the college's commitment to a ragging-free campus.

ACTIVITY REPORT

The Department of Mental Health Nursing and Counselling Cell–SPARSH of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, organized a series of enlightening and interactive activities to commemorate World Mental Health Week 2025 on the theme “Access to Services — Mental Health in Catastrophes and Emergencies.” The celebration commenced on 7th October 2025 with an inaugural session and expert talk on “Mental Health in Catastrophes and Emergencies” by Dr. Jeet Nadpara, Psychiatrist, Shantman Hospital, Vapi. The session enhanced participants’ understanding of psychological resilience and coping strategies during crises. On 8th October 2025, a poster competition on “Hope and Support in Crisis” was conducted, allowing students to creatively express the significance of empathy, awareness, and timely intervention in promoting mental well-being.

On 9th October 2025, 8th semester (4th-year B.Sc. Nursing) students presented a panel discussion on “Bridging the Gap: Challenges in Accessing Mental Health Services During Catastrophes.” The discussion provided insightful perspectives on barriers to mental health services and innovative strategies for improving accessibility during emergencies. The week concluded on 10th October 2025 with an awareness program and role play presented by 6th semester (3rd-year B.Sc. Nursing) students on “Restoring Hope After a Catastrophe.” The performance highlighted the vital role of nurses in delivering psychological first aid and community-based mental health support following disasters.

The week-long observance successfully promoted awareness, compassion, and advocacy for mental health accessibility, emphasizing the importance of normalizing help-seeking behavior and fostering a supportive environment for those in emotional distress.
