ACTIVITY REPORT

Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, celebrated Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2024 with a series of engaging and awareness-driven activities aimed at promoting a safe and inclusive campus environment. The week began on 12th August with a poster competition based on the theme "#YaRIYouthAgainst Anti-Ragging." Students from 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing, 2nd Year B. Sc Nursing, and 2nd & 3rd Year GNM actively participated, showcasing their creativity and commitment to the cause. The 3rd Year GNM students emerged as winners, securing the first prize for their impactful poster designs.

On 14th August, the college organized a slogan/logo competition, again involving students from the same academic years. The 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing students won the first prize for their compelling slogans that highlighted the importance of standing against ragging. On the same day, a flash mob was conducted by the 3rd Year B. Sc Nursing students within the college campus. This dynamic performance served as a powerful medium to raise awareness among the college community, including non-teaching staff such as security guards, peons, maids, and administrative personnel. They were educated about the seriousness of ragging and encouraged to report any incidents to the college's Anti-Ragging Committee.

The week concluded on 18th August with an essay writing competition, where students expressed their thoughts and understanding of anti-ragging measures through well-articulated essays. The Anti-Ragging Week successfully fostered a culture of vigilance, empathy, and responsibility among students and staff, reinforcing the college's commitment to a ragging-free campus.
