ACTIVITY REPORT

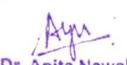

On 31st January 2026, the NSS Unit of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, in collaboration with Gram Panchayat Kherlav, R.N.C. Free Eye Hospital, and ATU Rural Development, organized a Free Eye Check-up and Blood Donation Camp at the Primary School, Kherlav. The programme was organized on the occasion of the inauguration of the new school building and the Bhoomi Pujan (foundation ceremony) of the library, with the aim of promoting community health awareness, early detection of eye problems, and voluntary blood donation among the rural population.

During the eye check-up camp, a total of 338 patients were examined. Out of these, 25 patients were referred for further surgical management, and vision-assisting spectacles were provided to 286 needy beneficiaries as per medical advice.

Alongside this, a blood donation camp was conducted, during which 8 units of blood were successfully collected with all safety protocols followed.

A total of 15 NSS volunteers from the 3rd Year GNM Internship batch actively participated and assisted in registration, patient guidance, crowd management, and coordination with the medical team, contributing to the smooth conduct of the programme.

The activity proved to be highly beneficial for the local community and reinforced the spirit of social responsibility, teamwork, and service among the NSS volunteers.
