પારકી: સાન્ડ્રા શ્રોફ કોલેજ ઓફ નર્સિંગ, વાપીના વિદ્યાર્થીઓએ રાષ્ટ્રીય સેવા યોજના (NSS) અંતર્ગત આજ રોજ ખેરલાવ ગામમાં એક પ્રશંસનીય સ્વચ્છતા અભિયાન હાથ ધર્યું હતું. NSS એકમના વિદ્યાર્થીઓએ ગામની વિવિધ જાહેર જગ્યાઓ જેમ કે રસ્તાઓ, ચોક-થોરસા, પાણીના તળાવો આસપાસના વિસ્તારો તથા અન્ય સાર્વજનિક સ્થળોની સાફ-સફાઈ કરી હતી.

Decision News મળેલી જાણકારી મુજબ આ અભિયાન દ્વારા વિદ્યાર્થીઓએ સ્વચ્છતાનું મહત્વ સમજાવ્યું અને સમાજમાં જવાબદારીની ભાવના જગાડવાનો પ્રયાસ કર્યો. વિદ્યાર્થીઓના ઉત્સાહ, શ્રમ અને સેવાભાવનાના કારણે ગામની જાહેર જગ્યાઓ નવીનીકરણ પામી અને વધુ સ્વચ્છ તથા સુંદર બની. આ કાર્યક્રમમાં ગામના આગેવાનો, સરપંચ તથા સ્થાનિક નાગરિકોએ પણ પૂરો સહયોગ આપ્યો હતો, જેણે સમાજ અને શિક્ષણ સંસ્થા વચ્ચેના સુંદર સંકલનને દર્શાવ્યું.

HANDWRITTEN NARRATIVES

BY NSS VOLUNTEERS- NSS SPECIAL VILLAGE CAMP

WHERE SERVICE MET STORIES: AN UNFORGETTABLE NSS SPECIAL VILLAGE CAMP

A seven day camp to Kherlav village as a part of the Community health nursing posting was a beautiful and unforgettable experience.

The bus journey were full of joy we sang songs, clapped, shared snacks, teased each other, and laughed loudly while travelling from college to village. Those fun moments in the bus made us forget our tiredness and brought us closer as a team.

When we reached in the village all members of our group going together to house to house to do survey the village path become palaces of fun and friendship. we walked together, joked, laughed and enjoyed the fresh air of the village. Each steps was filled with energy and even the hard steps was filled with full of joy, hard work felt light because we were together.

one of the most touching moment was during the school health camp the children welcomed us with curious eyes and shy smiles. Some were Scared at first, but soon they started laughing asking question and holding our hands with trust. Their innocent faces, cheerful voices, and excitement made us realize how meaningful our work was. After gaining the children's trust, our visit slowly turned into something much more than routine posting. With smiling faces and eager eyes watching us, we began our planned activities we began with a "PHRABAT FERI" and the village soon echoed with laughter, claps, and a cheerful voices. Every game we played and every activity we conducted carried a hidden message of health, learning and care, making each moment lively and meaningful.

As a sun moved across the sky, curiosity began to spread along the village streets. This was the moment when we performed our nuktak matka, and within a minutes, a crowd formed around us. Through powerful dialogues and expressive action we delivered message on "Say no to Drugs", introduced the "Tata government health schemes" and explained the "Early warning sign of Cancer". With every line of play, silence grew deeper, eyes stayed fixed on us, and we could feel that our words were leaving an impact.

Just when the day seemed complete, another surprise awaited us. A small refreshment party brought back our energy, but the most awaited moments arrived as night fell. Under the open sky, a glowing bonfire lit up the darkness, and together we began cooking each other, every steps was filled with laughter, warmth and togetherness.

As we sat around the fire, sharing foods and stories, time seemed to slow down. The crackling sound of fire, the simple taste of kichdi and comfort of being together created memories stronger than any lesson taught in books. That night, we realized that community health nursing is not only about survey and care - it is about connections, compassion and moments that stay in the heart forever.

Some experiences end with the day, but this one stayed with us, reminding us that sometimes, the smallest villages give us the biggest memories. Atal
