

SANDRA SHROFF COLLEGE OF NURSING, VAPI

REPORT ON
VEER BAL DAY CELEBRATION 2024

SUBMITTED BY

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME TEAM
SSCN, VAPI

SIGNATURE OF PRINCIPAL

*Principal
Sandra Shroff College of Nursing*

VEER BAL DAY CELEBRATION 2024

Date of Event: 26th December 2024

Venue: Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi

Occasion: Veer Baal Diwas

Participants: 60 NSS Volunteers from 1st Semester, 2024

INTRODUCTION

Veer Bal Diwas is a day of remembrance celebrated in India to honour the martyrdom of the two sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji, the 10th Sikh Guru. These sons, Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh, were young children who were bricked alive by the Mughal emperor, Aurangzeb, for refusing to convert to Islam. The day is celebrated on December 26 every year and highlights the bravery and sacrifice of these young martyrs for their faith and principles.

Guru Gobind Singh Jayanti, also referred to as Guru Gobind Singh Day, is the birth anniversary of Guru Gobind Singh, celebrated by Sikhs worldwide. Guru Gobind Singh was the 10th and final human Sikh Guru, born on December 22, 1666. He is known for his leadership in defending Sikhism, his establishment of the Khalsa Panth in 1699, and his writings, including the Zafar Nama. The day is celebrated with prayers, kirtan (devotional music), and discussions of his teachings and sacrifices.

Additionally, on 9th January 2022, the Prime Minister, in a significant announcement, declared that December 26 will be celebrated as "Veer Bal Diwas" in remembrance of the martyrdom of Guru Gobind Singh Ji's sons, Baba Zorawar Singh and Baba Fateh Singh.

This day is dedicated to honour their courage and supreme sacrifice, as they were martyred for their refusal to convert to Islam. Veer Bal Diwas is not just a commemoration; it represents a transformative step for the nation. It embodies the vision of "Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat" a unified India where stories of courage transcend regional and religious boundaries.

REPORT OF THE DAY

On 26th December 2024, Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, observed Veer Baal Diwas, a significant day dedicated to remembering the bravery and sacrifice of the two sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh. The event aimed to honour their contribution to Sikh history and their supreme courage in the face of adversity.

A total of 60 NSS volunteers from the 1st semester of the academic year 2024 participated in the event, engaging in various activities to commemorate the day. The program was marked by deep reverence for the heroic legacy of the two young martyrs.

One of the highlights of the event was speech delivered by Ms. Sufi, a 1st Semester B.Sc. Nursing student. In her speech, she highlighted the significant contributions of Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh, emphasizing their remarkable courage and unwavering devotion to the Sikh faith, despite their young age. She spoke about their sacrifice for upholding Sikh values, and how, even in the face of immense adversity, they remained resolute and steadfast.

To further enrich the experience, we also showed videos to the students, illustrating the life and martyrdom of these two brave sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji. The videos provided a deeper understanding of their extraordinary courage and the legacy they left behind, leaving a lasting impact on all who attended the program.

CONCLUSION

Veer Baal Diwas serves as a reminder of the selflessness, courage, and undying commitment to truth and justice shown by Sahibzada Zorawar Singh and Sahibzada Fateh Singh. The celebration at Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi, not only honored their memory but also inspired the participants to reflect on the values of courage, honor, and sacrifice. It was a moving event that reaffirmed the importance of standing by one's principles, no matter the challenges faced. The 60 NSS volunteers who participated, along with the faculty and students, left the program with a renewed sense of respect for the sacrifices made by these young martyrs. The event successfully instilled the values of courage, sacrifice, and patriotism in all those present, and it is hoped that these lessons will continue to inspire generations to come.

THANK YOU