SNA: STUDENT NURSES ASSOCIATION

The Student Nurses' Association of India (SNAI) is an affiliated association of the student nurses under the umbrella of TNAI. The Student Nurses' Association of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing is one of the best platforms for the student nurses & it provides curricular & co-curricular programs, communicates issues & concerns relevant to nursing, encourages participation in community health related activities & promotes legislative involvement of the nursing student.

AIM:- The aim of SNA is to provide programs representative of fundamental & current professional interest concerns to nursing students. Membership in SNA aids in the development of the whole person, including the professional role.

OBJECTIVES:-

- To promote team spirit among students for common goal.
- To promote collaborative relationships with various health organizations
- To bring out the talents & confidence of the students for the upliftment of self & society
- To encourage the students to develop leadership quality and effective communication skills for overall development.
- To encourage students to participate and compete in various events at state, regional and national conferences.
- To help the students to develop professional ethics.
